OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

June 13, 1973

Vice Admiral Stansfield Turner, U.S.N., President Naval War College Newport, Rhode Island 02840

Dear Admiral Turner:

I have just learned from Sandy Trowbridge, President of the Conference Board, that you have been invited to join us at the Chatham Bars Inn on September 28, 29, and 30, in connection with the Northeast Conference of the Conference Board.

I can personally vouch for the quality and stimulation that you can expect to find at this meeting, and I sincerely hope you will be able to find room in your very busy schedule to attend.

Sincerely yours,

ohn M. Fox

The town is the unit of government, each town's political affairs being decided at the annual town meeting, and administered by "selectmen" or a town manager, who are elected by the qualified voters. Most of the towns on the Cape are divided into "villages"; these are not governing units in themselves.
